MEN KILLED ON STEAMER COLON.

The steamship Colon, half-masted and showing other evidences of distress, came into Colon yesterday. She had been badly battered by the hurricane encountered Sunday.

Three members of her crew lost their lives while engaged in the hold repairing a water tank.

The Colon belongs to the Panama Railroad Company. She left New York September 10, and was due to arrive yesterday. She encountered the hurricane at a point 40 miles north of Watling Island. The wind blew 100 miles an hour and tremendous seas soon were sweeping over the vessel. The staterooms and the dining saloon were flooded, one of her smokestacks was carried away, three boats were washed overboard, and the wireless telegraph apparatus was dismantled. Orders were given that no passengers be allowed on deck, and the travelers had to spend Sunday and Sunday night in the dining saloon. The water got to the mail bags and the registered and ordinary mail was badly damaged. Sunday night passed with the ship laboring through the storm and the passengers huddled below in a state of panic.

The Colon brought in 135 saloons and 20 deck passengers. Her officers declare that the hurricane of Sunday was the worst storm they had ever experienced in all their lives.

HEROIC GIRL SAVES LITTLE SISTER.

Familiarity with firearms from babyhood served Miss Irma Tulles, a Long Beach woman, in good stead last week in Silverado Canyon when her accomplishment gave her the steady aim and firm trigger finger to shoot and kill a huge rattlesnake just as the reptile was preparing to spring and sink its poisoned fangs into her sister, Altha.

The reptile which threatened the life of her little sister had five rattles and a button and Miss Tulles will have its skin fashioned into a band for her hunting sombrero.

Miss Tulles is an ardent devotee of the rifle, has handled guns since she was five years old and is a crack shot. Her favorite weapon is a .22 caliber rifle, which she always carries in the mountains.

Two weeks ago the young woman went with her sister and other relatives into the mountains for a camping trip. On the day she saved her little sister's life she was attracted by screams from the mountainside. Rifle in hand she sped up the rough incline and came on the sister standing a few feet from the big snake, screaming in terror.

Instantly realizing the danger and necessity of quick action, Miss Tulles took quick aim and fired. The swaying head of the rattler was a difficult target, but when the smoke cleared the reptile was uncoiling in death—its head shot off.—[Los Angeles Examiner.

FOLLOWS FRIEND IN DEATH.

After writing a letter to a girl, telling her he would be dead by the time the letter reached her, Gustave E. Seels, 37 years old, a pressman, shot himself in the head in his room on east Fifteenth street, New York, Thursday. Seels' death did not become known until yesterday morning, when an attractive looking young woman called at the house and told Mrs. John Faytak that she had just received a letter from Seels, saying that he was going to commit suicide.

Mrs. Faytak and the young woman went to Seels' room, where they found his body stretched on the floor.

On the bureau in the room was a morning newspaper with a death notice marked, and a clipping from a Washington paper with this heading: "Describes his own death and gas overcomes him." The article told of the suicide of a Washington printer, and across the clipping was written, "My friend."

TWO MONSTER FISH FIGHT BIG WHALE.

Campers along the beach between Brown, Point and Dash Point report a sea fight that took place near the shore between two blackfish, each about 30 feet long, and a whale 60 feet long. The blackfish apparently believed the leviathan was intruding on their preserve, and were the aggressors, while the whale bent every energy to get away. The three monsters dived and wallowed, creating a great commotion and churning the water to foam.

The whale finally appeared to grow fatigued, and tried to throw off his pursuers by running close to shore. When it appeared that he would run aground if he came any nearer, he suddenly turned and thrashed out into deep water, with his enemies in hot pursuit. A moment later he dived, the blackfish sinking out of sight after him.—[Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

SATURDAY EVENING, SEPT. 19, 1908.

THE letters read by William R. Hearst in Columbus, Ohio, Thursday night, charging Senator Foraker with accepting money from the Standard Oil Company, have created much consternation in the republican camp. In fact they were bombshells of the most destructive type, and have unmasked the hypocrisy of the leaders of the party who have been endeavoring to make the people believe they had started on a crusade as trust-busters. Senator Foraker is endeavoring to break the force of the New York editor's charges, but his explanations are unsatisfactory to many in his own party. The senator's admission that he accepted money from the Standard Oil Company as counsel, in connection with Ohio legislative affairs, will result in his being dropped out of the Taft campaign. It is practically certain now that the republican candidate will not appear on the same platform with the senator at the convention of the National League of Republican Clubs in Cincinnati next Tuesday. Senator Foraker was to have presided at this convention, and Mr. Taft had consented to speak. Steps were taken late last night to get the senator to withdraw, and leave the plat form to Mr. Taft. The feeling of Mr. Taft's friends is that he cannot afford to be tied up with the senator after the publication of the Archbold letters. Mr. Taft, when his attention was called to Mr. Hearst's charges and Senator Foraker's reply, very prudently remarked that he had nothing to say.

Bishop Grafton, of the Episcopal diocese of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, whose attention was called to an attack on Sunday baseball by one of his clergy, gave the following as his views on the much discussed question:

Whether any recreation on Sunday is allowable must depend upon the individual conscience. If recreation interferes with his primal duty to God then it ought to be given up, and while a number of devout Christians would abstain from the recreation named, there are others who look at baseball games or attend a free concert at the park, which is not harmful to their spiritual life, they having done their duty by attending in the morning the divine worship prescribed by Christ. Sunday is a day of devotion, rest and recreation. While the church forbids all servile work that can be avoided, it does not interfere with any recreation that does not interfere with a Christian's devotional duty.

The bishop's views on Sunday observance are liberal, to say the least.

MR. TREAT, United States Treasurer, made the bankers sit up and take notice last night when, at the banquet of the Maryland Bankers' Association at Baltimore, he told them that the recent panic was a bankers' panic. Furthermore, he said the panic could be traced to unsound principles of banking, especially the unsound principles of certain trust companies in New York. Still when Mr. Bryan suggests that deposits in banks be secured by national laws the republican leaders throw up their hands in horror and say that must not be!

TO CUT operating expenses, the Pennsylvania Railroad will discontinue eighteen local trains in the Philadelphia territory on weekdays and also five trains on Sunday. At Baltimore ten local weekday and two Sunday trains will be taken off. The rail mill of the Maryland Steel Company, at Sparrows Point, near Baltimore, shut down last night after two months' continuous operation because of the lack of orders and shipping instructions. This does not look favorable to republican prosperity which the leaders of that party are prating about so much on the eve of election.

A DISPATCH from Havana says General Estenz, head of the new negro party which has decided to nominate a complete ticket to obtain a due share of negro representation in the public offices, in an interview yesterday said that the real revolution, which must be vengeful and devastating, remained to be fought in Cuba, where the negroes are "threatened with the same awful fate as is suffered by them in the United States, where they are hunted to death like wild animals." It would appear that the colored politicians in Cuba are very similar to their brothers in this country.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Sept. 19.

Senator Foraker's admission that he had been employed by the Standard Oil Company came as a distinct surprise to those who are familiar with his public career here. The senator had frequently been accused of favoritism toward the railroad interests, but if it was known out in Ohio that he had saved the Standard Oil Company during his term in the Senate that information never got as far as Washington. Even the "muckrakers" who last year gave the Senator such a grilling, failed to dig up the fact, notwithstanding Senator Foraker's signed statement to the effect that he never made any secret of it. A number of other senators were pilloried as the Standard's representatives in the upper branch of Congress, but up to this time Foraker's name had never been mentioned, even remotely in that connection. Foraker's friends accept his word that his relations with the company were merely those of attorney and client and that his acceptance of fees had nothing to do with the matters pending in Congress, or affairs in which the federal government had any interest. They are fearful, however, that his admission that he was interested on behalf of the Standard affairs in the Ohio courts and legislature portend grave consequences for his political future. The revelation made by Mr. Hearst, coming just at this time, is manifestly embarrassing to the Taft managers. According to word coming from Ohio, it means the disrupting of the harmony arrangement ent red into between Foraker and Taft, and that Foraker's further assistance in the campaign will not be accepted by the republican candidate for president.

Orville Wright's condition was reported favorable today. He has so far recovered from the shock of Thursday's accident that he is able to receive visitors, and discuss plans for his future. He was particularly cheered over the arrival of his sister, Miss Katherine Wright, from his home at Dayton, O. The aviator is determined to continue his experiments as soon as he is able, which, however, will probably not be for five or six months. The Wright brothers' financial backer, Charles R. Flint, of New York, said today that he was willing to spend any amount of money to assist the two men in prosecution of their life's work. While it is not probable, it is possible that Wilbur will discontinue his flights at Le Mans and come to the United States to fulfill the contract the brothers have with this country. The funeral of Lieutenant Selfridge will not take place till after the arrival of his father and mother, who started from San Francisco today. The interment will be either at Arlington National Cemetery, here, or at West Point, New York.

William H. Gray, and William Rule, were drowned when a motor boat on the Eastern branch caught fire yesterday and sank.

Charles L. Werth, a well-known farmer living near Waynesboro, has been arrested on a charge of attempting to assault Viola Painter, a twelve-year-old girl, living near Ladd, not far from Staunton. He was given a preliminary hearing at Waynesboro, and was held for the grand jury, bail being fixed at $500. Worth, who is forty-six years old and married, denies the charge.

A disastrous fire swept the northern residential section of Portsmouth yesterday evening, entailing a loss of at least $20,000 to residences, and several thousand dollars' worth of household furniture was also destroyed by the flames. The fire was under control within an hour after it was discovered, and within that brief period five residences had been consumed.

Fire was discovered yesterday afternoon in the wareroom of the Golden Lin Weaver Carriage Company, at Harrisonburg. In the wareroom were more than 100 buggies, besides many large farm wagons. About 50 buggies in crates were carried out. The firemen were retarded in their work by poor equipment, the hose bursting. The insurance is $7,500, and the loss is estimated at $5,000.

While driving yesterday at Berryville, Miss Minnie Brouse, a schoolteacher, of Washington, was thrown from a vehicle and badly hurt. She was accompanied by Prof. Joseph Kastar, of Washington, who has a summer home in the Blue Ridge Mountains. The horses became frightened and ran off, throwing both occupants into the street. Miss Brouse was knocked unconscious and several deep gashes were made in her head.

Elephant on Rampage.

New York, Sept. 19.—With the reptile house at the Bronx Zoo here a wreck today all the attaches of the park are entered upon the biggest snake hunt in New York's history. That is, all except those who are trying to hold down Luna, a big elephant. Luna, who was recently brought from Coney Island, went bad yesterday and charging upon the park caused panics in which several women and children were hurt. Last evening she attacked the cages of the lions and tigers but was beaten away by the keepers. Then she turned on the reptile house and when she was through with it the building was shattered. Then with chains on her legs the big beast stood all night swaying and grumbling while about her keepers with pitch forks stood by. This morning Luna seemed quieter and the shackles were taken from her legs. Instantly she charged the cages, overturning them and such an exodus of snakes followed as broke all record. It was an hour before the elephant was again secured.

Twenty members of the choir of the fashionable Woodlawn Park Methodist Episcopal Church, at Chicago, left the choir left last Sunday at the beginning of the service because Mrs. Alta Beach-Edmonds, the new leader, wore a big hat, heavy with plumes, despite the objection of the other woman singers to wearing hats at all.

The jail at Cass, Pocahontas county, W. Va., was partly destroyed by fire yesterday, and Mary Tysing, colored, the only prisoner, was burned to death. Her charred body was found on the bunk of her cell. It is believed the woman started the fire for the purpose of ending her life. She was in custody on a charge of shooting her husband, Moses Tysing.

In the face of a stiff breeze, which blew from the south, making an aerial trip dangerous, Lieut. B. D. Foulois and Sergt. Edward Ward, of the aeronautic corps, took the Baldwin dirigible balloon out for its first trial trip in St. Joseph, Mo., yesterday evening. Rising to a height of 300 feet, they circled about the military tournament grounds for fifteen minutes before alighting.

While in a jealous rage William Reinert, a steel worker, yesterday shot and killed Mrs Sarah Boyer, his boarding house mistress, at South Bethlehem, Pa., and then killed himself by firing six shots into his body. Mrs. Boyer was 35 years old and had a husband living at Reading from whom she had been separated for two years.

L. W. Brown, aged 50 years, of Fairview, a small town near Fairmont, W. Va., was killed on the race-track yesterday. While he was driving a young horse the lines became entangled under the animal's tail, and in trying to extricate them Brown was caught between the wheel of his sulky and the shaft. The horse kicked him in the forehead and dragged him half a mile.

Unless the long-standing wage dispute is settled 200,000 cotton operatives will be locked out today. The employers proposed to reduce wages 5 per cent., but they finally consented to postpone this reduction until January 1 of next year. The operatives yesterday voted as to whether or not they will accept this offer, and they probably will.

Dr. J. F. Schaffner, jr., physician and druggist, died at Winston-Salem, N. C., yesterday, aged 70. He joined the Confederate army as assistant surgeon of the Seventh. Twenty-first, and Thirty-third regiments; was promoted field surgeon of the Thirty-third and Fourth regiments, and was finally made brigade surgeon of Branch's and Ramseur's brigades.

The body of Miss Alice Pairo, of Washington, who was drowned with six other persons by the capsizing of the yacht Minnie Belle, of Oak Island, on the night of September 10, was found yesterday by Capt. George E. Haskell, and Irving Gowe, of Deer Isle, Me. It was identified only by the clothing and laundry marks. This is the first body to be recovered since the night of the tragedy, when two were found.

While Blanche Cribier, 3 years old, the daughter of Frederick Cribier, a summer resident of Helmetta, N. J., was at play near her home, yesterday, a large eagle swooped down and attempted to carry the child away in its talons. Cribier was attracted by the screams of his daughter. He fought off the bird and, as it attempted to fly away, his brother, who had come up with a shotgun, fired and wounded the eagle. Its capture was then an easy matter. The child was found to be uninjured except for a few scratches.

Thousands of people from all sections of southern Maryland attended the tournament held at Indian Head, Thursday, the proceeds from which will be applied for the erection of a Catholic church at that place. Eighteen knights entered the contest, which resulted in Childs Barnes winning first honors. Mr. Barnes crowned Miss Alma Lyon queen. John Lyon came second, and crowned Miss L. Berry first maid. Third-place was won by Paul Robey, who crowned Miss Edith Lyon, and fourth place by R. S. Dement, who crowned Miss Hannah Robey.

Rev. B. Bellamor, a Syrian priest of Scranton, Pa., was mysteriously shot in the arm on a train while bound from Washington for Philadelphia late last night. He is now at a hospital. Mr. Bellamor had been in Washington to see Papal Delegate Falconi. The priest had fallen asleep in his seat and on awakening found blood streaming from his arm. He says he was shot as a result of the church war raging about the Syrian Catholic Church, in Philadelphia.

The South Bay canning factory at Kingston, Ont., was destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss, $50,000; well insured.

"The Shelter," an historic residence dating from 1816 and located near Normandy, a fashionable suburb, 12 miles west of St. Louis, was burned early yesterday morning. William H. Lee, president of the Merchants-Laclede National Bank, of St. Louis, and his family fled from the burning structure in their night clothes. Mr. Lee estimates his loss at $12,000, exclusive of the many heirlooms which the house contained.

Forty men were overcome by smoke in a fire which threatened the destruction of Swift & Co.'s packing plant, in south St. Joseph, Mo., yesterday, and caused $60,000 damages. With the possible exception of Alexander Mason, the company's foreman, and George B. Heaton, a fireman, all are out of danger. The fire started in the basement of the cold-storage building. Foreman Mason tied a rope about his waist and went into the basement, but was dragged out more dead than alive. Fire Chief Kane and O. W. Waller, general manager of the plant, were among those temporarily overcome.

Ohin Chan, a young Chinese market gardener at Seattle, Wash., has yielded to the custom of his fathers and paid $500 for his bride, in spite of the fact that he has been married to the girl for three weeks and that legally she was already his. The money was paid by the father of the groom to the father of the bride, together with $6 extra for Chin Chan's new mother-in-law. The love affairs of Chin Chan and Tina James, both members of the First Baptist Church, of North Yakima, have been followed with interest since the groom announced his determination not to violate his views of Christianity and his faith in American liberty by purchasing a maid whose heart was already his.

Today's Telegraphic News

Electric Trust.

New York, Sept. 19.—The startling discovery was made today that the federal grand jury here has been investigating the management of the General Electric Company and a half dozen other electric concerns with a view of establishing the existence of an unlawful trust.

It is said that enough evidence has already been secured to warrant the indictment of a half dozen "masters of finance" in the electric world.

Astounding revelations are hinted at. The government is convinced that the electric street railway and electric lighting business of the country are absolutely controlled by the trust.

The investigation was begun upon the order of President Roosevelt and is now being pushed at his command, notwithstanding the emphatic personal opposition of men high in the industrial and political world. This is said upon high authority to have developed in an attempted coercion.

The advocates of temporary delay take the ground that inquiry during the heat of a presidential contest may work untold injury to the party. They have tried to impress upon the president that his motive will be misconstrued.

They have told Roosevelt that he will "catch it going and coming."

The president, so the authority for this story says, has met these entreaties with the declaration that he will not permit the mixing of politics and business.

House of Lords.

London, Sept. 19.—One of the most startling developments in modern English history is foreshadowed in the coming recommendation of a committee of peers, under the chairmanship of Earl Rosebery, that an increase in the percentage of elective peers in the House of Lords be made.

The committee, after a careful study of the form of English government and the needs of its expansion, made an announcement last night of a recommendation that will make parliament reconvene.

Nothing could have created more consternation and today politicians are discussing nothing else then the sweeping provisions that it contains.

The committee tacitly admits that the existence of the House of Lords as a hereditary body is threatened.

The committee was appointed under the premiership of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and was in response to a widespread clamor against hereditary legislators.

The recommendation is sure to precipitate one of the most vital discussions in parliament of late years and its adoption is doubtful.

Mr. Bryan.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 19.—Invading republican New England in the hope of strengthening the cause of the local democracy in Connecticut and Rhode Island, Wm. J. Bryan today reverted to the "paramount issue" of the organization of 1900 and discussed independence for the Filipinos at half a dozen points.

Shortly after leaving New York Bryan gave out an interview, replying to the statement of Mr. Taft given in his written interview of September 15, to the effect that the "independents prefer a republican victory to Mr. Bryan's promise."

When this appeared, Mr. Fiske Warren, of Boston, Bryan said, cabled to Mr. Alberto Barretto, of Manila, and received the following reply: "Nationalist party, with immediate independence creed, prefers triumph of the democrats. General convention of the twelfth of July agreed unanimously and join enthusiastically Bryan's platform.

"ALBERTO BARRETO, president."

The nationalist party is the largest group in the Philippine assembly, and it, according to Mr. Barretto, is unanimously opposed to Mr. Taft's selection.

Mr. Bryan made his first speech of the day at Stamford where he talked on anti-imperialism and the labor platform. He was greeted at nearly every point by good crowds. At New Haven he visited the grave of his late friend, Alexander Troup, and placed a wreath of flowers there.

Wholesale criticism is being heard today of the conduct of the recent army maneuvers in Alsace-Lorreine as a result of which 21 soldiers have died and nearly 200 are still in hospitals. Either the discipline and standard of living in German army are sadly at fault, of the maneuvers were conducted with unwarranted and criminal rigor. Before the investigation is through startling disclosures and a big shake up is promised.

Senator Foraker.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 19.—Public records of Ohio dispute Senator Foraker's declaration that his employment by Standard Oil was of common knowledge. The records of the supreme court don't show a single instance in which Foraker appeared as attorney of record for the company.

How successful Foraker was on every project concerned in the Archbold letters is shown by the record. Judge Burkett, of Lima and Findlay, who was one of the supreme court justices, who gave the decision stopping Monnett's ouster suits against Standard Oil, was renominated as Archbold sought.

Smith W. Bennett, brother-in-law of Monnett, active in Standard Oil prosecution, was badly defeated when he stood as a candidate for the attorney generalship in 1903 and his name was not offered to the convention. Archbold wrote to Foraker against Bennett's candidacy.

With every labor organization in Ohio backing him, Bennett was defeated for nomination this year by a combination led by Walter Brown, of Toledo, and U. G. Denman was named.

A bill similar to the Price bill of 1900, about which Archbold wrote to Foraker, was offered at the last session of the legislature by Foster, democrat, of Hancock county, and defeated. The purpose of the Price and Foster bills was to compel the publication of the names of stockholders and corporations. Had the Price bill passed it would have exposed years ago that Standard Oil controlled a swarm of so called independent oil companies of Ohio, which have since been ousted and are doing business under the right name as Standard companies.

Fear Uprising in India.

London, Sept. 19.—Awake at last to the imminent danger of a general native uprising in India, the British war office has begun preparations for keeping a strong force of European troops in constant readiness for dispatch to Asia. Arrangement for the maintenance of 20,000 soldiers at Aldershot, for this purpose, were responsible for the recent rumor that the men were to embark at once. The report was not quite accurate in detail, but it develops that it was founded on fact. Lord Kitchener, commanding the English military force in India, believes an uprising inevitable but has insisted that he is strong enough to suppress it, providing the native troops remain loyal. The army now at Kitchner's command includes 75,000 English and 140,000 native troops, with which he must keep a population of nearly 300,000,000 in order.

Mr. Kern.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 19.—John Kern, of Indiana, vice presidential candidate, arrived in Baltimore this morning. He was met at the station by State Chairman Vandiver and many other leading democrats and drivers to the Hotel Rennert.

Mr. Kern came to this city on professional business. Mr. Kern is scheduled to speak at West minister tonight, and will return to Baltimore early Sunday morning. He is expected to stay in Baltimore Sunday, and on Monday night will speak at Elkton, the home town of Governor Crothers. Arrangements are being made to have him speak at least once in Baltimore city, before his departure on Tuesday next.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The democrats made big gains in the elections held in Indiana yesterday to fill vacancies in the legislature.

A fast train on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad between Newport News and Richmond was wrecked 25 miles from Richmond this morning. Several persons are reported injured.

Archbishop Bourne of London will, in all probability, be the next Catholic prelate to be elevated to the Cardinalate. The rumor concerning the elevation of Archbishop Farley, of America, is again heard in Vatican circles.

A slight cessation of the wind caused a check in the rapid spread of the fires that are devastating nine counties of Maine today, but there will be no hope of extinguishing them until rain comes to aid the hundreds of men fighting to save their homes. At present all efforts of the fire fighters are bent to keep the flames from the towns in their course.

At the final meeting of the general committee on arrangements for the reception to be tendered Cardinal Gibbons on his arrival in Baltimore from his trip abroad, it was decided, after a heated debate, that the Naval Academy Band, which had been protested against by the musical union, should not march in the parade on October 10. The decision was arrived at Vicar General Corrigan after he had heard the pleas of the adherents of the union bands.

ACTOR SHOT AND BEATEN.

In a pitched battle Thursday, last and between five young men of Rome Ga., members of the Majestic Musical Comedy Company, Orlo Knight, tenor and comedian of the company, was shot in the arm, hit in the mouth with a brick and frightfully beaten. The affray took place after midnight at the boarding house where the chorus girls were stopping. The young men had followed the girls home after the show and were found in their rooms by the male members of the company when they arrived.

This enraged the male members of the company and they attacked the young men. In the battle that followed the actors were getting the best of it until the Rome men drew pistols and began firing. The shots caused a panic and the young men of the town escaped.

Comedian Knight is dangerously wounded and may not recover. No arrest have yet been made. Should Knight die the arrests that will be made will cause a social sensation, his assailants being among the best known men in the city's professional circles.

IT IS A PARASITE

That Causes Itching Scalp, Dandruff and, Finally, Falling Hair.

The itching scalp, the falling hair and the dandruff that annoys are the work of a parasite hidden in the scalp. That parasite must be killed to cure dandruff; and the only preparation that will do that is Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

C. H. Reed, of Victor, Idaho, says: "Myself and wife had dandruff and falling hair several years. Two bottles of Newbro's Herpicide completely cured us, after several other preparations had failed to do good." Makes hair grow glossy and soft as silk. Hundreds of other testimonials just as strong.

Statement From Senator Foraker.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 19.—Senator Foraker gave out the following statement at noon today:

"The production by Mr. Hearst of the letter of Mr. Archbold to me dated January 29, 1902, referring to a certificate of deposit enclosed for $50,000 and expressing hope that the transaction may be satisfactorily concluded, illustrates how unreliable is the memory and how easily appearances can deceive.

"When I first read the letter I could not recall that I had ever received any such letter or any such certificate. I at once called up my house in Washington and had a search made, with the result that a proposed transaction was recalled that had gone entirely out of my mind.

A friend of mine informed me that he held an option on the Ohio State Journal to purchase it, according to my present recollection, for $145,000. He applied to me to help him. For the sake of having the paper in friendly hands, I was willing to advance part of it. I applied to a number of friends to see if they would not make up the balance of the amount. Among others, I applied to the Standard Oil Company. They first agreed to the loan to the newspaper $30,000, according to my present recollection, the same to be secured by stock of the newspaper company. Somebody who was expected to go into the enterprise dropped out and that made it necessary for all the others to increase the amount they were proposing to advance.

The Standard Oil Company did accordingly increase their amount from $35,000 to $50,000 and sent me the letter with certificate enclosed as stated. It was thought at that time that the transaction would be immediately closed, but there was a delay and at the end of that delay the whole transaction fell to the ground, because other people stepped in and purchased the property. Thereupon I returned the draft to the Standard Oil Company. I had no employment in the matter and never derived a cent of profit from it and never made any charge on account of it to anybody.

"I do not remember to have received the letter relating to the bill introduced by Senator Jones, of Arkansas, but whether I received such a letter or not it had no reference to any employment of any kind from the Standard Oil Company or anybody else nor did the letter about Smith Bennett and Judge Burkett, read by Mr. Hearst at Columbus have any reference to any employment. I favored the nomination of Mr. Bennett, notwithstanding Mr. Archbold's objection to him and would have favored Judge Burkett's nomination even if I had not heard from Dr. Archbold. Judge Burkett was a personal as well as political friend of many years standing.

"I can only repeat, the only employment I ever had by the Standard Oil Company was, as set forth in my statement published yesterday, as advisory counsel as to respect to their interests in Ohio. * * * The company finally concluded, as a result of all the investigations, consultations and advice, to reorganize by incorporating under the laws of the state of New Jersey, and then my services ended. I have never had any relations whatever with the company since.

"Any letters Mr. Archbold may have written me on any subject since that time have been written only as any citizen might write to any legislator with whom he was acquainted concerning pending legislation that affected him or his interests, and from the time my services ended I have never been under any obligation to the company nor the company under obligations to me.

"Neither the Standard Oil Company or any other company or individual has ever paid me a cent on account of any public service nor has that company or anybody else ever suggested to me any compensation or reward of any kind in consideration of support for any bill or opposition to any bill, or to for any action of any nature whatever."

Senator Foraker concludes with a copy of a letter he wrote to Mr. Archbold February 4, 1902, enclosing him a draft for $50,000 as repayment of money advanced by Archbold on a proposed transaction at Columbus.

Desperado Captured.

Waukesha, Wis., Sept. 19.—After holding a posse at bay all night, barricaded in Mrs. Julia Grabow's farm house, George Smith, aged 60, who shot three persons, was captured early today. The victims are Mrs. Julius Garbow, her daughter, Olga, 14, and Sheriff George D. Winnell. All are severely wounded. Smith, employed on the Garbow farm, is believed to have been impelled to the shooting by his rejected love for Olga. Sheriff Winnell was shot while attempting Smith's arrest after he had shot the woman and girl. Deputy sheriffs watched the house all night but made no further effort to arrest Smith.

AIDED IN ESCAPE.

Once more Frank Brown, jr., son of the City Collector, of Baltimore, is said to have taken part in an escapade that is causing a great deal of talk. It is said that on Thursday evening, with a couple of friends, he visited the Mount Hope Asylum and helped a friend to escape from that institution. His friend is Lester Bresee, a son of the late Edward Bresee, who had been an inmate there for nine weeks. The friends of Bresee are now making strenuous efforts to locate the escaped man. Young Brown was reported last night to be in his father's home, at the southwest corner of Charles and Read streets.

MR. BRYAN IN NEW YORK.

Mr. Bryan spoke to an audience that was packed to the rafters in Carnegie Hall in New York last night. He also talked in the street near the hall to an overflow meeting.

It was a defense of his cause that Bryan announced to be the keynote of his address before the New York audience. In his speech he said:

"A distinction ought to be drawn between Mr. Roosevelt's popular policies and his unpopular policies.

"The popular policies are those which have been borrowed from the democratic party; the unpopular are those upon which the republican party has a patent.

"I have never endorsed Mr. Roosevelt, but I have endorsed things which he has said and done, just as I have criticised things he has said and done."

Out of these schools are going trained and educated christians to be ministers and professional men all over the country. Dr. Gammon is a man of great personal magnetism and a pleasing speaker. Owing to the widespread interest in South America recently awakened by the lectures of Mr. John Barrett, many people of this city will gladly hear Dr. Gammon tomorrow. He speaks with authority. The public is cordially invited to both services.

FIRE LAST NIGHT.

Judging from the blowing of the whistles and the consequent excitement last night one would have thought that a look at the Southern Railway shops in this city this morning would have disclosed a heap of ashes. About 8:59 last night an alarm of fire was sounded and the report circulated that the shops were ablaze. Fortunately such was not the case and the damage was slight. The fire was caused by friction from a pulley igniting a quantity of waste and grease. Four employees were in the shops at the time and but for this fact there might be a different story. They brought the line of hose, kept there for just such emergency, into action and soon had water playing on the flames, and the fire was practically over before the arrival of the fire department.

POLICE COURT ITEMS.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning. The case of the young woman who was charged with witholding money belonging to her former employes, set for today, did not come up, as the matter had been settled.

Mr. John Eatwisle reported to police headquarters that a wheelbarrow was stolen from the front of his premises last night.

FEW EQUAL—NONE SURPASS.

It has been the policy of the Gazette to stand by its patrons in the business world and it does not intend to deviate from this custom. In the last few months it has mentioned nearly all of the various business enterprises represented in its columns except the house furnishing department of M. Ruben & Sons. This establishment's business may need no encomium from this paper, as its growth in the last few years speaks in louder tones of its success than mere words. All of the people of this city know Ruben and the way they know is because of direct contact with him in a business way. "Lep" Ruben is calculated to do business, even on a barren island, but when surrounded by people who know and appreciate the man it is more than probable he will retire from the furniture field very soon with money to scramble by virtue of close attention to business. No house in this section keeps a better assortment of house furnishings, no man who attempts to sell has a better or more congenial personality than Mr. Leopold Ruben, of the firm of M. Ruben & Sons. An inspection of his handsome store will prove what this article says.

THE MARKET.

There was another fine display of country produce in market this morning. Prices in the main had undergone no material change from those prevailing last Saturday. Lima beans were plentiful and prices were weaker. Some fresh pork was on the benches of country people. It brought 15 cents for hind quarters and 14 for fore. There was a profusion of flowers.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY MAY USE TELEPHONE.

Although no formal decision has been reached, the Southern Railway is considering the advisability of using the telephone instead of the telegraph as a means of keeping track of its trains and for the transmission of train orders. "We are anxious to use any device which will add to the efficiency of the service," said the general superintendent. "But the question of using the telephone has not been finally agreed upon." The experiment has been tried on many lines with satisfactory results.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Miss Nellie Baker, daughter of Mr. Herbert Baker, was walking down King street last night about 8:30 o'clock, and with her she had a young child. One of the children who coast on this hill with a wagon ran into her and Miss Baker fell to the ground badly jarred. The child, fortunately, escaped unhurt. The practice of people skating down the hill has been mentioned in the Gazette quite frequently.

THROWN FROM BUGGY.

Dr. Walter A. Warfield was thrown from his buggy yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock at the corner of First and Columbus streets. The horse was freightened by an engine which was shifting on the tracks near the Portners Brewery. One of the doctor's limbs was lacarated and he was otherwise slightly bruised. The horse and buggy were stopped at the corner of King and Columbus streets.

ACCIDENTS.

Mrs. Webster, wife of ex-Chief Webster, fell down a stairway at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Kate Pulman, in Fairfax county, this morning, and was seriously injured.

Mr. Ignatius Stoutenburgh, of this city, who was in the neighborhood at the time, mounted a horse and rode to this city to summon a physician. On King street, near Columbus, the horse slipped and fell. Mr. Stoutenburgh's right leg was broken by the accident. He was removed to the office of Dr. T. B. Cochran, where Drs. Snowden and Gibson rendered surgical attention. He was later removed to his home, southwest corner of Prince and Lee streets.

FIGHT.

A fight took place between some negroes in a saloon on north Fairfax street early this afternoon. Chief Goods and Officer Sherwood repaired to the place and arrested Robert Bryan, who is alleged to have been one of the principals.

The Cholera.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—Danger of Asiatic cholera over all of Europe was increased today by the appearance of the disease in Finland, where a number of cases are reported. The Scandanavian countries are thoroughly alarmed at the appearance of the disease and are seeking to establish the most rigid quarantine possible. The advent of colder weather in the Russian capital, which was looked forward to be in the hope that it would check the cholera, has apparently only added to the scourge and today more cases were reported than on any other day.

THE beautiful colored leaves, tinted in the many shades of the rainbow, remind us that the fall season is on us with its warm days and bracing and cool evenings.

It is the delight of one to view nature in her evolution and be a participant in her bountiful resources and health-giving virtues.

But we would be recreant to the trust reposed in us and derelict in our duty if we failed to remind you that there are other things which approach nature to such a degree in their health-restoring qualities; and, keeping this fact in mind, would be pleased to call your attention to our liquors—the superior of which no human eye has discerned or hand or brain manufactured.

HAVE INSTALLED ELECTRIC CHAIR.

In the northeast corner of the new cell building of the State penitentiary, in the basement, is situated the death chamber, which is to be the seat of all executions in the State of Virginia under the new law in the future.

Every detail of the apparatus has been looked after. The death chair is in place, the wires to convey the current are in, the switch-board has been perfected, the straps, which are to bind the victim in the chair are ready, and the completed chair has been tested in many ways.

The room is understood to be about twenty-four feet square. No one is allowed to enter it except the officer of the prison. There are only the chair and the wires to be seen. A screen will prevent anyone from seeing the current turned on. The man who does the work will be known only to the superintendent.

It has been learned that eighteen hundred volts will be used, although the maximum of two thousand two hundred can be used if necessary. Opportunities for a fluke in the electrocution of criminals has been reduced to a minimum. The latest devices for swift and certain death have been installed. It only remains for the person under sentence of death to step in, have the straps adjusted, when a wave of the hand will send the deadly current through his body. Death will be instantaneous.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are for weak back, backache, rheumatic pains, inflammation of the bladder and all other annoyances due to weak kidneys. They are sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to La Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whisky. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarroea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into La Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into La Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.
